

MARIE-CLAUDE THIFAU is a professional historian at the University of Ottawa whose primary research focus is the history of late-nineteenth and twentieth century asylum life in Quebec and Canada.